JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted. Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant shall be placed on probation on Count 1 for a term of one (1) year under the following terms and conditions:

Defendant shall be confined to his home for a period of two months and is restricted to his residence at all times except for employment; education; religious services; medical, substance abuse, or mental health treatment; attorney visits; or other court-ordered obligations; or other activities as pre-approved by Probation;

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $25.00, which is due within the period of supervision;

All fines are waived as it is found that such a sanction would place an undue burden on defendant and his dependents;

The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample;

The defendant shall possess and use only those computers and computer-related devices, screen user names, passwords, email accounts, and internet service providers (ISPs), which have been disclosed to Probation upon commencement of supervision. Any changes or additions shall be disclosed to the Probation Officer prior to the first use. Computers and computer-related devices are personal computers, personal data assistants (PDAs), internet appliances, electronic games, cellular telephones, and digital storage media, as well as their peripheral equipment, that can access, or can be modified to access, the internet, electronic bulletin boards, and other computers;

All computers, computer-related devices, and their peripheral equipment, used by the defendant shall be subject to search and seizure. If defendant obtains employment outside of the home, this condition will not apply to items used at the site of employment, to the extent those computers and devices are maintained and monitored by the employer. This condition does apply to employment inside the home;

Defendant's computers and devices shall be subject to the installation of monitoring software and hardware. The defendant shall pay the cost of the computer monitoring, in an amount not to exceed $30 per month per device connected to the internet;

The defendant shall contact the Court of Common Pleas of Delaware County, Pennsylvania and clear the outstanding warrant issued;

the drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse;

Bond is exonerated;

The underlying felony Complaint is ordered dismissed.
